Dear Kordell,

Thank you for your contribution to our 2013 ISAE conference. Your session during the last hour of the last day was packed. That carries a powerful message about the word-of-mouth buzz that came from your earlier presentation.

I know one attendee said of your presentations, "there are motivational speakers and content speakers . . . but it is rare to get one who has both."

Thanks again.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Leslie', is written over a large, decorative flourish.
